Don't Give Up Chocolate for Lent

I'd like to invite you to join me and your fellow parishioners for BEST LENT EVER, a free email program from Dynamic Catholic. Lent comes every year. It's meant to be a time when we invite God to help us become the-best-version-of-ourselves. But for many of us, Lent isn't a transformative experience. It's just a time when we give up chocolate or something else we enjoy, then go back to it at Easter. This year, you can change that with BEST LENT EVER. You'll receive daily emails with short inspirational videos, practical tips for your everyday life, and real-life stories to encourage you in your journey. All you have to do is sign up at DynamicCatholic.com/BestLent. See the bulletin for more details.

Parish History (1868-2018)

St. Joseph's Parish is celebrating its 150th Anniversary this year!!!

Timothy Cardinal Dolan will celebrate the 5:00pm Mass on November 17, 2018

1960- St. Joseph's Mission in Hurley is constructed to relieve congestion at the church in Kingston.

1963- The new school opens in September and the old school is named for Msgr. Connelly who dies on Oct 8.

1964- On Sunday, April 5, the new school is blessed and dedicated by Bishop Philip J. Furlong. During the 60s, the parish school enrollment swells to 660 and the CCD student population to more than 1,200.

1972- The decision is reached to completely renovate the church interior and exterior, rather than build a new structure. The marble side altars and statues, the superstructure on the main altar, the bronze sanctuary grille and murals are removed. The side galleries are declared unsafe and taken down. New pews, confessionals, wood statues and ceiling lights are installed. During the renovation, the congregation attends Mass in the new school auditorium.

1973- The church reopens with a solemn rededication and Mass on November 3. Terence Cardinal Cooke is the principal celebrant.

1978- The parish school receives its first lay principal.

1993- The Sisters of St. Ursula celebrate 50 years at St. Joseph's. Msgr. Keating celebrates 45 years at St. Joseph's and 50 years of priesthood. St. Joseph's Parish celebrates its 125th Anniversary.

1994- Fr. Frank was appointed as Pastor of St. Joseph's Church.

March 4, 2018 – Fr. Frank will be celebrating his 80th Birthday.
